NATIONAL BASEBALL LIBRARY AND ARCHIVE, COOPERSTOWN, NY

With the support of SABR's Vermont chapter, Vermont Historical Society and the Calvin Coolidge Presidential Library and Museum, "Rooting for the Home Team" examines President Coolidge's interest in baseball, and most especially, Mrs. Coolidge's passion. A life-long devotee of the sport, Grace's love of the game started as official scorekeeper of the University of Vermont's baseball team.

Open daily, 9:30 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., May 25 – Oct. 20, 2013

The President Calvin Coolidge State Historic Site is located in the pristine village of Plymouth Notch.
